We share the joy and blessings for God's gift of your child,
and we welcome them into our faith family.

Below are the guidelines for Baptisms.

Parents call the office requesting a phone call interview with the coordinator to schedule the baptism.

Parents General Requirements:

- Must be Registered and participating members of our community.
- Provide a copy of your child's birth certificate – the child cannot be registered for baptism until you bring the birth certificate.
- Copy of the parents ID
- Those who come from another parish must bring a permission letter from their church and all other required documents.

Godparent Requirements:

- You may have one or two Godparents.
- Godparents must be practicing Roman Catholic and be at least 16 years of age (they must be Baptized Catholic and Confirmed and not in an irregular union).
- They must obtain a Sponsor Certificate from their Parish.
- A person of another denomination cannot be a Godparent. In case of an emergency a person of another Christian denomination can only be a Christian witness and have been baptized and practice their faith.

Baptismal Class:

- Parents and Godparents must attend a Baptismal Catechesis Class. This class will be scheduled in English and Spanish. We give you the dates of the class in the interview.
